Mental methods should continue to develop, supported by a range of models and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should continue to develop, supported by a range of models and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual Mental methods X by 10, 100, 1000 using moving digits involving decimals. Identifying common factors and multiples of given numbers Solving practical problems where children need to scale up. Relate to known number facts. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual Mental methods X by 10, 100, 1000 using moving digits involving decimals. Identifying common factors and multiples of given numbers Solving practical problems where children need to scale up. Relate to known number facts. Concrete Long division to be modelled for understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Continue to develop understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Continue to develop understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Concrete Long division to be modelled for understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Concrete Long division to be modelled for understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Continue to develop understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Concrete Long division to be modelled for understanding understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Concrete Long division to be modelled for understanding of given numbers facts.	Addition	Subtraction	Multiplication	Division develop, supported by a range of models and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places develop, supported by a range of models and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. develop, supported by a range of models and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places develop, supported by a range of models and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue to develop understanding of short division and introduce decimals. Continue to scale up. Relate to known number facts. Written methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication To refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication To refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication To refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication To refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication To refine and deepen understanding of written methods including flu	Mental and written methods	Mental and written methods	Mental and written methods	Formal Written Methods – long and short and images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places And images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. And images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. And images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places And images with increased fluency. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Abstract Abstr	Mental methods should continue to	Mental methods should continue to	Mental methods X by 10, 100, 1000 using	division
Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Children should be able to choose the most efficient method should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Continue calculating with decimals, including fluency for using long multiplication Abstract Draw place value counters in books to support solving Abstract 1 2 2 1 2 2 5 4 4 1 1 4 1	develop, supported by a range of models	develop, supported by a range of models	moving digits involving decimals.	Continue to develop understanding of most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Mritten methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Mritten methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Mritten methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including fluency for using long multiplication Mritten methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods support solving Abstract Most efficient method and explain why they chose it. Written methods Continue calculating with decimals, including fluency for using long multiplication Mritten methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods support solving Abstract 1 2 1 2 2 5 4 4 1 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1	and images with increased fluency.	and images with increased fluency.	Identifying common factors and multiples	short division and introduce decimals.
they chose it. Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Written methods Written methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication Abstract Draw place value counters in books to support solving	Children should be able to choose the	Children should be able to choose the	of given numbers
Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Mritten methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Mritten methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Mritten methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication Mritten methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding using place value counters. Pictorial Draw place value counters in books to support solving Abstract Multiplication Abstract I 2 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1 2 1	most efficient method and explain why	most efficient method and explain why	Solving practical problems where children	Long	Long division (progressing to 4d by 1d)
Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Written methods should progress to larger numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Written methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication Abstract Draw place value counters.	they chose it.	they chose it.	need to scale up. Relate to known number	Con	Concrete numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places numbers, aiming for both conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with conceptual understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Nritten methods Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication Abstract 1 2 5 4 4 1 1 4 1 1 2 2 4 3 1 2 4 1 2 4 1 2 4 1 2 4 1 2 4 2 4 4 1 2 4 2 4 5 2 4 6 2 4 7 2 4 7 3 2 4 7 3 3 3 4 7 4 4 7 5 3 3 4 7 5 4 4 7 6 7 5 4 7 7 7 7 8 7 8 7 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8 8			facts.	Long division to be modelled for understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Understanding and procedural fluency with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication Continue to refine and deepen understanding of written methods including fluency for using long multiplication Draw place value counters in books to support solving Abstract 1 2 1 2 1 1 4 1 1 4 1 1 2 2 4 2 4	Written methods should progress to larger	Written methods should progress to larger		und	ersta	nding	g usin	ıg pla	ce value counters.
with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places with columnar method to be secured. Continue calculating with decimals, including fluency for using long multiplication support solving Abstract 1 2 2 5 4 4 2 4 1 1 1 2 2 4 1 2 4 1 2 4 1 2 4 1 2 4 1 3 2 4 1 4 1 2 1 5 5 4 4 4 6 7 2 4 7 7 2 4	numbers, aiming for both conceptual	numbers, aiming for both conceptual	Written methods	Pictorial
Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Continue calculating with decimals, including those with different numbers of decimal places Continue calculating with decimals, including fluency for using long multiplication Abstract 2 1 2 1 2 2 5 4 4 2 4 1 1 2 2 4 1 2 2 5 4 1 2 2 5 4 1 2 2 5 4 1 2 2 5 4 1 2 2 4 1 2 2 4 1 2 2 4	understanding and procedural fluency	,	•	Draw place value counters in books to including those with different numbers of decimal places multiplication 2 1 2 1 2 5 4 4 2 4 1 1 2 1 2 5 4 4 2 4 1 2 2 5 4 4			_	, .
decimal places 1 2 2 5 4 4			, ,	Abs	Abstract
2 4 1 4 1 2 2 4 2 4 2 4 4 2 4 4	_	_	multiplication				2	1	2
1 4 1 2 2 4 2 4	decimal places	decimal places		1	2	_		4	4
1 2 2 4 2 4 2 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4 4						2	-
2 4 2 4							_
2 4							1	_	4
					I	ı	1	ı	